

Venue Guide

About Experience Oxfordshire Venues

Where else could you hold your meeting in a room that was once home to Oscar Wilde or dine where C S Lewis, William Gladstone and Rowan Atkinson regularly ate, then let your delegates spend the evening networking on the banks of the Thames?

From UNESCO world-heritage palaces and ancient libraries to high tech venues Oxfordshire has it all. Oxfordshire is home to a diverse range of venues suitable for everything from bio-tech conventions, to luxury incentive breaks, to corporate retreats from nearby London.

Surrounding the historic 'City of Dreaming Spires' and world-leading University of Oxford are the beautiful stone villages of the Cotswolds, bucolic English market towns on the banks of the Thames, and Britain's greatest palace – all within a little over an hour from London by train, bus or car.

The Experience Oxfordshire Venues Service is the official and free venue-finding service for Oxford and Oxfordshire. The service is a single point of contact for regional, national and international event organisers and individuals, providing bureau services and introductions that deliver exceptional experiences within the unique venues in Oxford and Oxfordshire.

Why Oxfordshire?

History & Heritage

There are over 1,500 listed buildings in Oxford, and the University of Oxford is the oldest in the English-speaking world. Among the alumni are 27 British Prime Ministers, at least 30 international leaders, 50 Nobel Prize winners, and countless scientists, authors and other great minds.

Outside Oxford lies Blenheim Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Woodstock. It is the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill and is currently home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough, with 300 years of history to discover and more than 2000 acres of landscaped parkland and gardens to explore.

Inspiration & Peace

The high walls of Oxford's time-honoured colleges enclose peaceful gardens, and Britain's oldest Botanical Garden occupies a charming position on the River Cherwell in the heart of Oxford.

The city's many parks and meadows like Christ Church Meadows, South Parks, University Parks and Port Meadow are some of the best parks you can visit in England. Take a river cruise along the Thames from Oxford to the serene expanse of Port Meadow where Lewis Carroll first told his stories of Alice in Wonderland.

Arts & Culture

Oxford's museums and libraries are unparalleled. The Ashmolean is the oldest museum in the world, the Bodleian Library holds a multitude of invaluable ancient books and the Pitt Rivers is a treasure trove of curious artefacts.

Oxfordshire offers an unrivalled wealth of cultural events, from world class musicians performing at the Sheldonian Theatre, to grand musical productions at the New Theatre.

Shopping

Located 20 minutes outside Oxford, world-renowned Bicester Village is home to over 160 boutiques of the world's leading fashion and lifestyle brands, as well as exceptional savings of up to 60% on the recommended retail price, all year round.

Westgate Oxford is Oxford's newest shopping and leisure experience located in the heart of Oxford and is home to prestigious global brands, inventive and eclectic restaurants and cafes, a five-screen boutique cinema and sophisticated rooftop bars and dining.

Getting to Oxfordshire

Getting to Oxfordshire could not be easier - we are at the heart of England.

Oxfordshire is 45 minutes from London Heathrow Airport and 50 minutes from Birmingham International Airport.

Fast and efficient train and coach services link Oxford with London, Birmingham and the north and south of the country, and the M40 and A34 ensure easy access by road.

International Gateways:

- ✦ Birmingham International Airport (56 minutes by train)
- ✦ Heathrow International Airport (80 minutes by airline bus, or 85 minutes by train)
- ✦ London's other international airports – Gatwick, Luton and City all provide easy access to Oxford via central London. (London to Oxford is 90 minutes by coach, Gatwick is 150 minutes)
- ✦ London Oxford Airport (private airport) (20 minutes by taxi)

Getting around Oxfordshire

Things to do in Oxfordshire

The University of Oxford

Take inspiration from one of the world's leading academic institutions. The University of Oxford, the oldest university in the English-speaking world, is made up of 39 colleges – many date back to medieval times and have immaculately lawned quads, grand dining halls and ornate chapels. Experience a college for yourself on a tour with Oxford Official Walking Tours.

Blenheim Palace

Home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough and his family and the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, Blenheim Palace is a magnificent stately home. The perfect destination for a leisurely day to wind down, or to treat your delegates after a conference, Blenheim Palace offers 2,000 acres of open countryside to explore. Enjoy a sumptuous afternoon tea in The Orangery or soak up the opulence of the State Rooms.

Bicester Village

Bicester Village is Europe's ultimate luxury shopping destination, home to more than 160 world-leading brands, from Swarovski to Saint Laurent; all offering exceptional savings. Take some time off to shop in the boutiques or dine in the Village's cafés and restaurants. With direct train links to London, Bicester Village is a well-placed bolt-on to a visit to Oxfordshire.

Explore the Countryside

Oxfordshire's rolling hills, winding rivers and quaint market towns are a picture-perfect backdrop to some all-important leisure time. Take a day trip into the Cotswolds from Oxford, see the River Thames from a different perspective aboard a boat tour (or even a punt!), or challenge delegates to test their endurance in a walk along the Ridgeway Trail in the south of Oxfordshire.

University of Oxford Museums

If you're hosting an event in the heart of Oxford, don't miss the University of Oxford's prestigious museums. Choose from the Ashmolean Museum, the world's oldest public museum and home to a world-famous collection of art and artefacts, the Museum of Natural History, and neighbouring Pitt Rivers Museum, the University of Oxford's quirky museum of anthropology and world archaeology.

Westgate Oxford

If your event is taking place in Oxford, delegates can enjoy some down-time at Westgate Oxford – Oxford's premier shopping and dining destination. Delegates can take in a film at Westgate's five-screen cinema after an afternoon of shopping. In the evening they could visit Westgate's rooftop terrace for arresting views of the Oxford skyline while enjoying a drink or meal at one of the many innovative restaurants and boutique bars.

Evening plans

From traditional pubs to buzzing bars, live theatre performances to concerts and everything in between, there are plenty of things for delegates to see and do in vibrant Oxford once the sun goes down. Options include trying their luck at Junkyard Golf Club, Oxford's indoor golf course and bar, immersing themselves in a theatre performance at New Theatre Oxford, or mingling with intellectuals in Oxford's bars and pubs. Alternatively, organise tickets to a classical music concert in a stunning and historic Oxford venue, or attend a public lecture – the University of Oxford hosts a calendar of events throughout the year.

Make the most of your visit to Oxfordshire.

Extend your stay

As one of the most centrally located cities in England, Oxford is the perfect place to base yourself to explore other parts of the country. Excellent transport links makes it easy to travel around Oxfordshire and beyond.

Stonehenge

Walk in the footsteps of your Neolithic ancestors at Stonehenge - one of the wonders of the world and the best known prehistoric monument in Europe. Travelling by train to Salisbury takes just over two hours, and the journey time to drive by car is just over one hour, giving you plenty of time to explore this wonderful English Heritage site.

Bath

With frequent services on the rail route between Oxford and Bath taking just over one hour, the beautiful city of Bath is the perfect day trip destination. Built for pleasure and relaxation, Bath has been a wellbeing destination since Roman times, boasting the only natural thermal hot springs in Britain you can bathe in.

Stratford-Upon-Avon

Nestled in the rural Warwickshire countryside, on the picturesque banks of the River Avon, lies the charming medieval market town of Stratford-upon-avon. A day trip to the birthplace of William Shakespeare, the world's greatest playwright, is a must and it's so easy to get there either by bus, with a journey time of just over an hour, or by train via Royal Leamington Spa.

London

Less than an hour's journey via train from Oxford, London's lively city atmosphere is not to be missed. Take in a show in the West End, stroll around the UK's most famous museums, and marvel at some of the grandest monuments in Europe

Belmond Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons

Created by celebrated chef Raymond Blanc OBE, Belmond Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons is one of the country's most cherished manor house hotels. They received two Michelin stars in 1984, and have held them ever since.

Surrounded by lawns, flower borders and orchards, its setting is postcard-perfect. Beyond the eye-catching displays are vegetable and herb gardens that provide the kitchen—and the acclaimed Raymond Blanc Cookery School—with ultra-fresh, organic produce. They guarantee the restaurant remains at the cutting edge of culinary excellence.

The private event area is ideal for private dining, weddings and meetings for up to 50 guests: with a large walled garden and additional space in a modern conservatory.

The Chequers at Burcot

The Chequers at Burcot is a country pub, restaurant and hotel located within the heart of beautiful rural South Oxfordshire.

Following a refurbishment in 2018, The Chequers now offers a brand new menu and restaurant layout, specialising in contemporary British food using wonderful local produce.

As part of the refurbishment they updated their 'Gallery' area. This provides a flexible meeting/conference area for up to 20 delegates which can be adapted to suit groups needs.

In 2019 they opened 9 en-suite boutique hotel rooms, all individually designed with all the mod cons you would expect for a luxury stay. With breakfast provided, you can enjoy a leisurely stay with them, making the most of your visit without the need to rush away after a long day.
