About Experience Oxfordshire Venues

Where else could you hold your meeting in a room that was once home to Oscar Wilde or dine where C S Lewis, William Gladstone and Rowan Atkinson regularly ate, then let your delegates spend the evening networking on the banks of the Thames?

From UNESCO world-heritage palaces and ancient libraries to high tech venues, Oxfordshire has it all. Oxfordshire is home to a diverse range of venues suitable for everything from bio-tech conventions, to luxury incentive breaks, to corporate retreats from nearby London.

Surrounding the historic 'City of Dreaming Spires' and world-leading University of Oxford are the beautiful stone villages of the Cotswolds, bucolic English market towns on the banks of the Thames, and Britain's greatest palace – all within a little over an hour from London by train, bus or car.

The Experience Oxfordshire Venues Service is the official and free venue-finding service for Oxford and Oxfordshire. The service is a single point of contact for regional, national and international event organisers and individuals, providing bureau services and introductions that deliver exceptional experiences within the unique venues in Oxford and Oxfordshire.

Why Oxfordshire?

History and Heritage

There are over 1,500 listed buildings in Oxford, and the University of Oxford is the oldest in the English-speaking world. Among the alumni are 30 British Prime Ministers, at least 30 international leaders and 50 Nobel Prize winners, and countless scientists, authors and other great minds.

Outside Oxford lies Blenheim Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Woodstock. It is the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill and is currently home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough, with 300 years of history to discover and more than 2000 acres of landscaped parkland and gardens to explore.

Outdoors

The high walls of Oxford's time-honoured colleges enclose peaceful gardens, and Britain's oldest botanical garden occupies a charming position on the River Cherwell in the heart of Oxford.

The city's many parks and meadows like Christ Church Meadows, South Parks, University Parks and Port Meadow are some of the best parks you can visit in England. Take a river cruise along the Thames from Oxford to the serene expanse of Port Meadow where Lewis Carroll first told his stories of Alice in Wonderland.

Arts and Culture

Oxford's museums and libraries are unparalleled. The Ashmolean Museum is the oldest museum in the world, the Bodleian Library holds a multitude of invaluable ancient books and the Pitt Rivers is a treasure trove of curious artefacts.

Oxfordshire offers an unrivalled wealth of cultural events, from world class musicians performing at the Sheldonian Theatre to Garsington Opera's summer festival.

Shopping

Located 20 minutes outside Oxford, world-renowned Bicester Village is home to over 150 boutiques of the world's leading fashion and lifestyle brands, as well as exceptional savings of up to 60% on the recommended retail price, all year round.

Westgate Oxford, a shopping and leisure experience located in the heart of Oxford, is home to prestigious global brands, inventive and eclectic restaurants and cafes, Curzon - a five-screen boutique cinema and sophisticated rooftop bars and dining including Six by Nico.

Getting to Oxfordshire

Getting to Oxfordshire could not be easier - we are at the heart of England.

Oxfordshire is 45 minutes from London Heathrow Airport and 50 minutes from Birmingham International Airport.

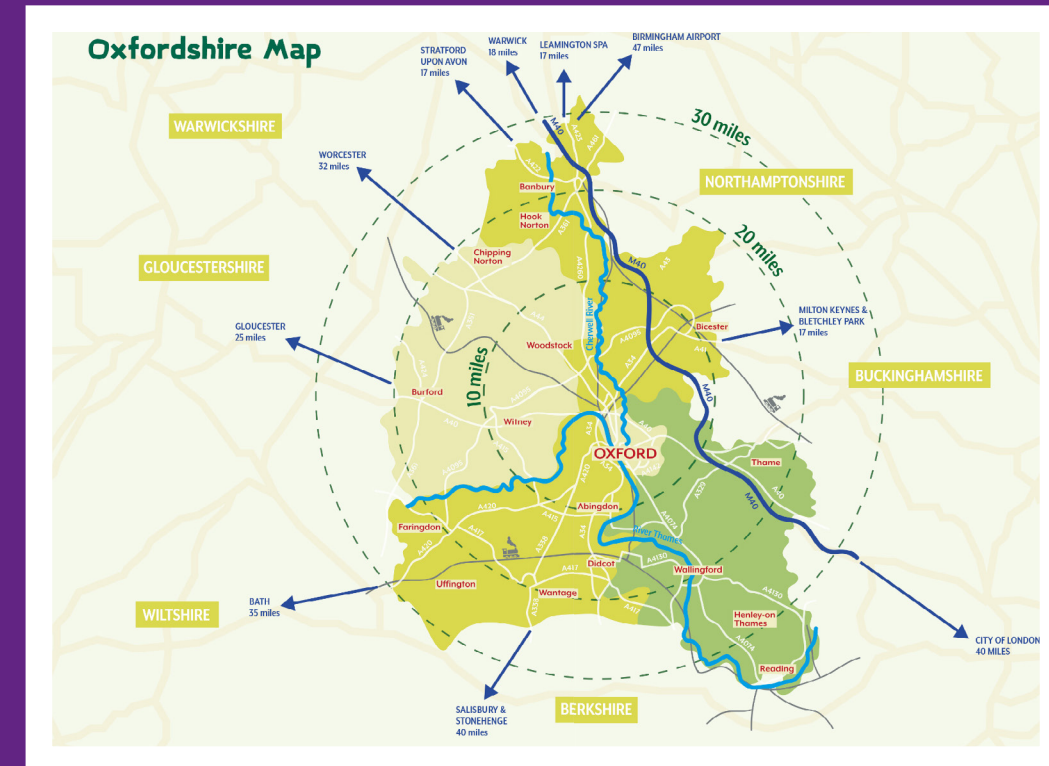

Fast and efficient train and coach services link Oxford with London, Birmingham and the north and south of the country, and the M40 and A34 ensure easy access by road.

International Gateways:

- ✦ Heathrow International Airport (90 minutes by the airline coach service, or 90 minutes by train)
- ✦ London's other international airports – Gatwick, Luton and City all provide easy access to Oxford via central London. (London to Oxford is 90 minutes by coach, Gatwick is 150 minutes)
- ✦ Birmingham International Airport (60 minutes by train)
- ✦ London Oxford Airport (private airport) (20 minutes by taxi)

Getting around Oxfordshire

Only 60 miles across, and served by a network of motorways, train lines and bus services.

Things to do in Oxfordshire

The University of Oxford

Take inspiration from one of the world's leading academic institutions. The University of Oxford, the oldest university in the English-speaking world, is made up of 39 colleges – many date back to medieval times and have immaculately lawned quads, grand dining halls and ornate chapels. Experience a college for yourself on a tour with Oxford Official Walking Tours.

Blenheim Palace

Home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough and his family and the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, Blenheim Palace is a magnificent stately home. The perfect destination for a leisurely day to wind down, or to treat your delegates after a conference, Blenheim Palace offers 2,000 acres of open countryside to explore. Enjoy a sumptuous afternoon tea in The Orangery or soak up the opulence of the State Rooms.

Bicester Village

Bicester Village is Europe's ultimate luxury shopping destination, home to more than 150 world-leading brands, from Swarovski to Saint Laurent; all offering exceptional savings. Take some time off to shop in the boutiques or dine in the Village's cafés and restaurants. With direct train links to London, Bicester Village is a well-placed bolt-on to a visit to Oxfordshire.

Explore the Countryside

Oxfordshire's rolling hills, winding rivers and quaint market towns are a picture-perfect backdrop to some all-important leisure time. Take a day trip into the Cotswolds from Oxford, see the River Thames from a different perspective aboard a boat tour (or even a punt!), or challenge delegates to test their endurance in a walk along the Ridgeway Trail in the south of Oxfordshire.

University of Oxford Museums

If you're hosting an event in the heart of Oxford, don't miss the University of Oxford's prestigious museums. Choose from the Ashmolean Museum, the world's oldest public museum and home to a world-famous collection of art and artefacts, the Museum of Natural History, and neighbouring Pitt Rivers Museum, the University of Oxford's quirky museum of anthropology and world archaeology.

Westgate Oxford

If your event is taking place in Oxford, delegates can enjoy some down-time at Westgate Oxford - Oxford's premier shopping and dining destination. Delegates can take in a film at the Curzon five-screen cinema after a stop of shopping, or get competitive at Flight Club Oxford, the home of Social Darts. In the evening they could visit Westgate's rooftop terrace for arresting views of the Oxford skyline while enjoying a drink or meal at one of the many innovative restaurants and bars including Six by Nico.

Evening Plans

From traditional pubs to buzzing bars, live theatre performances to concerts and everything in between, there are plenty of things for delegates to see and do in Oxfordshire once the sun goes down. Options include immersing themselves in a theatre performance at Oxford Playhouse, mingling with intellectuals in Oxford's bars and pubs or dinner in a private dining room. Alternatively, organise tickets to a music concert in a stunning and historic Oxfordshire venue or attend a talk.

Schwarzman Centre

The Stephen A. Schwarzman Centre for the Humanities is currently under construction, completion due in 2025, providing a new home for research and teaching in the humanities at Oxford University, and an exciting range of outstanding venues for all of Oxford.

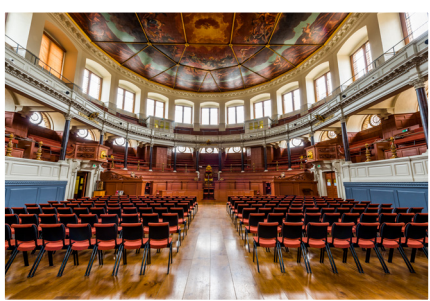

Fully open to the public, this exciting new venue will house versatile, state-of-the-art performance and conference facilities, including a 500-seat concert hall, 250-seat theatre and 100-seat “black box” space.

These venues will be brought to life by academic-led events, talks and exhibitions; as well as Oxford University’s Cultural Programme, which is already delivering an ambitious series of live and online events to connect audiences, artists and academics.

Sheldonian Theatre

Elegant and sophisticated, brimming with ornate glamour and steeped in history; this unique grade 1 listed venue is a world-renowned architectural gem in the heart of Oxford. Designed by England’s greatest architect, Sir Christopher Wren, the Sheldonian is the University of Oxford’s ceremonial hall. It hosts a range of events from conferences, lectures and awards ceremonies; to drinks, dinners and weddings; to filming and photo shoots. What makes the Sheldonian Theatre truly stand out is its striking octagonal rooftop Cupola with a stunning 360° view of the city’s skyline – the perfect location for a sunset drinks reception to wow your guests.

Wood Brothers Distilling

Created by brothers Ed and Charlie Wood, the distillery was born when they combined their love for the land, as 6th generation family farmers, with the desire to diversify and make best use of their home grown products and stone granary barns to craft single estate spirits.

With Ed's knowledge of the intricate processes involved, he was able to lead on the development and hand building of the distillery in 2017. The first spirits came off still early in 2018.

Winter wheat grown on the farm is milled, mashed and fermented to produce a pure, well-rounded base spirit that retains the subtle notes of the grain when distilled to create Single Estate Wood Bros Vodka and Gin.
